Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation Celebrates Global Wellness Day

ORLANDO, Fla. – July 1, 2019 – Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation (NYSE: VAC) recently observed Global Wellness Day on June 7 and 8 at more than 60 vacation ownership resorts and various corporate offices around the world. Associates, Owners, Members and guests from Bangkok, Thailand, to Hilton Head, South Carolina, took part in unique wellness activities, including morning yoga, beach cleanups, water aerobics classes, group runs and obstacle course challenges to recognize the benefits of living a healthy lifestyle. Observed in more than 150 countries, Global Wellness Day brings awareness to the importance of overall wellness — a complete state of physical, mental and social well-being.

“Marriott Vacations Worldwide is proud to participate in Global Wellness Day, an international initiative that aligns with our company’s values and the belief that total well-being is essential to living a fulfilling and productive life,” said Stephen P. Weisz, president and chief executive officer. “Community engagement, quality time with loved ones and physical health are fundamental in the lives of our more than 23,000 associates, as well as the Owners, Members and guests we serve. Global Wellness Day was an opportunity to celebrate the significance of these parts of our lives, not just today but every day.”

“I have always believed that living well is the simple necessity for every human being on the planet and with Global Wellness Day we are able to touch the lives of millions around the world,” said Belgin Aksoy founder of Global Wellness Day. “I’m honored to have a global company such as Marriott Vacations Worldwide support Global Wellness Day to help spread wellness beyond borders.”

Wellness is embedded in the culture of Marriott Vacations Worldwide and its respective brands, and embodied in its “Thrive” initiative which promotes associate, Owner, and guest wellness year-round. In 2018, more than 140 wellness events were held throughout the company, including charity walks, yoga classes and a treadmill challenge. Associates are also encouraged to use benefits like flu prevention, free gym access and employee assistance programs.
